

Palestine Oak 9 1
Quercus calliprinos

Plantae, Angiosperm, Eudicots
3 POINTS

Fact: Quercus calliprinos can grow as large as 18m tall, unless heavily browsed by goats! (then they reach a maximum of 3m)

Image by Aisha Thani
warrior-u.com/

Warm, Hot

Apple Tree 9 1
Malus domestica

Plantae, Angiosperm, Eudicots
3 POINTS

- Different Malus domestica trees produce more than 7,500 known types of apples.

Image by Elianne Hänggi
www.elianne.ch/

Cool, Warm

Aleppo Pine 9 1
Pinus halepensis

Plantae, Pinophyta, Pinopsida
1 POINT

- Pinus halepensis has a SPREAD of 2
- Pinus halepensis is considered an invasive species in South Africa and Southern Australia.

Image by Christina
kurodaia.deviantart.com/

Cool, Warm, Hot

Japanese Cherry 9 1
Prunus serrulata

Plantae, Angiosperm, Eudicots
2 POINTS

- Prunus serrulata has a SPREAD of 2.
- Prunus serrulata is native to Japan, Korea, and China.

Image by Lishie88
lishie88.deviantart.com/

Cool, Warm

Paper Birch 9 1
Betula papyrifera

Plantae, Magnoliophyta, Magnoliopsida
5 POINTS

- Betula papyrifera has a SPREAD of 1 (requires WIND). The relatively soft, whitish wood is used extensively for such items as clothespins, spools, ice cream sticks, and toothpicks.

Image by Arla Sterling
www.studioswash.com/

Cool, Warm

Pacific Dogwood 9 1
Cornus nuttallii

Plantae, Angiosperm, Eudicots
5 POINTS

- Cornus nuttallii has a SPREAD of 1 (requires POLLINATOR).

Image by Jesse Kempton
darkconofman.deviantart.com/

Cool, Warm

Valley Oak

Quercus lobata

91

Plantae, Magnoliophyta, Magnoliopsida

5 POINTS

• Quercus lobata has a SPREAD of 1 (requires a WIND card).

Quercus lobata is the largest of all oak trees in North America, often with trunks 7 feet in diameter, and heights of over 100 feet.

Image by David Miller

www.DavidMillerArt.com

Cool,

Warm

Western Red Cedar

Thuja plicata

91

Plantae, Pinophyta, Pinopsida

3 POINTS

• Thuja plicata has a SPREAD of 1 (requires a WIND card).

Image by Kirsten Call

www.kirstencall.com

Cold, Cool,

Warm