

VILLAGE INDIGOBIRD

Vidua chalybeata

PLAY: The Village Indigobird has a FLIGHT of 2.

FACT: The Village Indigobird is a brood parasite which lays its eggs in the nests of red-billed fire finches.

Art: David Orr
davidorogenic.com
CC BY-NC-SA

WARM
HOT

DUCK-BILLED PLATYPUS

Ornithorhynchus anatinus

PLAY: The Platypus has a MOVE of 2 and must feed off of a FRESHWATER TERRAIN card.

FACT: The Platypus is only one of a very few mammals lay eggs instead of giving birth.

Art: David Orr
davidorogenic.com
CC BY-NC-SA

COOL
WARM

VARIABLE NEON SLUG

Nembrotha kubaryana

PLAY: This slug has a MOVE of 1, and can only feed off of SPECIES cards with class ASCIDIACEA.

FACT: This slug can store, in its tissues, the toxins from the ascidians it eats and then can release them in a slimy defensive mucus when alarmed.

Art: David Orr
davidorogenic.com
CC BY-NC-SA

COOL
WARM

CAPE SUNDEW

Drosera capensis

PLAY: The Cape Sundew is carnivorous, but can also use photosynthesis. Therefore, it can be played as a YELLOW FOOD 1 and/or RED FOOD 3.

FACT: The Cape Sundew has long, thin leaves that roll up around trapped insects.

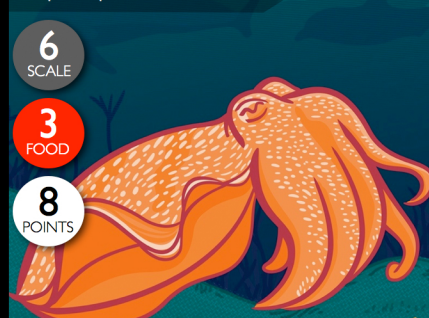

Art: David Orr
davidorogenic.com
CC BY-NC-SA

COOL
WARM

GIANT CUTTLEFISH

Sepia apama

PLAY: The Giant Cuttlefish has a MOVE of 2.

FACT: Using cells known as chromatophores, the cuttlefish can put on spectacular displays, changing color in an instant.

Art: David Orr
davidorogenic.com
CC BY-NC-SA

COOL
WARM

PANTHER CHAMELEON

Furcifer pardalis

Animalia, Chordata, Reptilia

PLAY: This chameleon has a MOVE of 2.

FACT: Panther chameleons have very long tongues which can extend at around 26 body lengths per second.

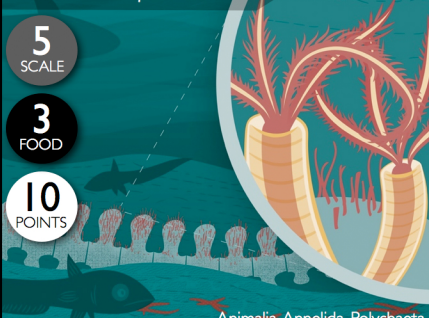

Art: David Orr
davidorogenic.com
CC BY-NC-SA

WARM
HOT

BONE WORM

Osedax rubiplumus

PLAY: This worm has a MOVE of 1, and must feed off of a whale SPECIES card.

FACT: This worm is reported to sustain itself on the bones of dead whales.

Art: David Orr
davidorogenic.com
CC BY-NC-SA

COLD
COOL

NORTHERN RAT FLEA

Nosopsyllus fasciatus

PLAY: The Northern Rat Flea has a MOVE of 2, and must be played adjacent a RODENTIA species.

FACT: This flea is also known for being a carrier for the plague.

Art: David Orr
davidorogenic.com
CC BY-NC-SA

COOL
WARM

SAND JELLYFISH

Rhopilema esculentum

PLAY: This jellyfish has a MOVE of 2.

FACT: The Sand Jellyfish is edible and is often served in South East Asian cuisine.

Art: David Orr
davidorogenic.com
CC BY-NC-SA

COOL
WARM